PUBLIC AFFAIRS:

Or, The Hiſtory of EUROPE, &c.

ACCORDING to Letters from Hanover, they ſeem to be pretty poſitive that his Britannic Majeſty will go over early next Spring, in order to accelerate by his Preſence the Election of the Archduke Joſeph to the Dignity of King of the Romans. They likewiſe ſay, that a Miniſter Plenipotentiary will forthwith be nominated, and ample Inſtructions given him; and that he is to repair firſt to the Court of Bavaria, and then to the Electors of Cologne and Mentz, in order to make ſuch Propoſitions as may keep them in the Intereſt of the Court of Vienna, and prevail on them to favour the ſaid Election. It alſo appears by theſe Letters, that they don't yet deſpair of bringing the King of Pruſſia into a right Way of thinking. The Miniſter of the Archbiſhop of Saltzburg, as Preſident of the College of Princes, having lately laid before them the Scheme for a perpetual Capitulation, to the Obſervation of which the Emperors are to bind themſelves by Oath at their Election, there was a Diviſion: Several Miniſters were for proceeding upon that Affair without Delay, whilſt others thó't it more adviſeable to put it off till after the Vacation, that in the Interim they might receive more explicit Inſtructions, to guide them in a Matter of ſuch Importance.

Auguſt 31.

The Liſt lately publiſhed at Peterſburg, of the Ruſſian Fleet, makes it conſiſt of fourſcore Men of War and Frigates, excluſive of Galleys and leſſer Veſſels; but the Orders for equipping and ſending a Squadron to Sea this Summer are countermanded, the Diſpoſition made for augmenting the Troops is changed, and the Swediſh Miniſter not only well receiv'd, but highly careſſed at Court.—Notwithſtanding which, ſome Diſturbances reign at Stockholm, where there are two Parties, one of which, being much the moſt powerful, is accuſed of ſpreading falſe and ſcandalous Reports, in order to exaſperate the Nation againſt the Ruſſians, not only in reſpect to the Fire which lately happened there, but alſo in regard to the injurious Deſigns of the Ruſſian Court, and that the Moderation which the Ruſſian Miniſtry affects, is put on with no other View than to lull the Swedes into a Security, and prevent them from taking any vigorous Reſolution at the approaching Diet.

Intrigues in Germany increaſe about the Election of a King of the Romans, which will ſoon be brought upon the Carpet. Several Princes of the Germanic Body, who are not of Opinion that this Election ſhould take Place in the Manner propoſed, are united, under Pretext of maintaining the fundamental Conſtitutions of the Empire, of preventing any Deviation therefrom, and of adhering to the Tenor of the Treaty of Weſtphalia.—His Pruſſian Majeſty has appointed the Lord Marſhal (Brother of Field-Marſhal Keith) his Envoy Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to the Court of France, and at the ſame Time conferred on him the Order of the Black Eagle.

The Empreſs of Ruſſia has notified to the Ottoman Miniſters her Intention of ſending an Ambaſſador thither, to ſtrengthen the good Intelligence and Harmony ſubſiſting between the two Courts.

The Court of Naples has received Letters [illegible] of Sicily, with an Account, that [illegible] happened there laſt Month, did very [illegible] ral Places, and particularly at [illegible] computed above 150,000 [illegible] arrived at Meſſa from [illegible]

Port the Duke of Modena is going to make at the Mouth of the River Lavenza.—After the Chevalier Chauvelin and the Marquis de Curzay had communicated to the Deputies of the Corporations of Corſica, the Conditions which the King of France had obtained for them, in order to ſecure their future Felicity and Tranquility, they then made the Deputies ſenſible, that thoſe Conditions could be no otherwiſe fulfilled, than as they were granted by a Power that had a Right to confer the Privileges they were to enjoy hereafter; that his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty, in Quality of Mediator between them and the Republic, could do nothing more than endeavour to procure thoſe Privileges; that the Republic of Genoa being the only lawful Power Providence had ſet over them, it was of her they muſt hold their Advantages; but that the King, to give them freſh Inſtances of his Kindneſs and Protection, would take upon him to guarantee all that had been granted them, and look to the Execution thereof. All the Deputies declared that they acquieſced with the profoundeſt Reſpect in every Thing his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty required of them, and then ſigned an Inſtrument, which they ſwore by the holy Goſpels to obſerve, and wherein they declare, That they acknowlege the Republic of Genoa for their ſole and lawful Sovereign, return to the Obedience they owe her as ſuch, and renounce all contrary Proceedings, of whatever Nature they may be. The Republic being thus reinſtated in all her Rights, does, on her Part, grant them the Privileges and Advantages obtained for them by the King of France, which are as favourable as can be deſired. The Marquis de Curzay is to remain in the Iſland with a Body of French Troops, in order to prevent any Infraction of the new Regulation.

Letters from Madrid adviſe, that through the indefatigable Pains of Mr. Keene, the Negotiation which that Miniſter was employed in at the Court of Spain, is very near being brought to a happy Iſſue. The Spaniſh Miniſtry is well diſpoſed thereto, and as it is well known that England wants nothing ſo much as to ſtrengthen the Bands of Friendſhip which ſhould unite the two Nations, one may reaſonably expect ſoon to ſee a ſecond Convention, which will put a final End to that Jealouſy which has ſubſiſted Time out of Mind between them.

There is much Talk of ſtrengthening the Alliance which has ſubſiſted from the Origin of the Dutch Republic, between it and Great-Britain: One of the Steps deſigned to be taken for that Purpoſe is, 'tis ſaid, to marry the Princeſs Caroline, Daughter of the Stadtholder, to the Prince of Wales. 'Tis even aſſured, that this will be a Point of Deliberation of the extraordinary Aſſembly of the States of Holland, whoſe Conſent and Approbation his Serene Highneſs will demand; but 'tis believ'd they will not give it, without certain Reſtrictions, one of which, 'tis pretended, will be, that the Princeſs and her Conſort ſhall be obliged to renounce, for themſelves and their Deſcendants, all Right and Pretenſion, either to the Stadtholderſhip of Holland, or that of the Generality.

September 7.

The Northern Regions are ſtill in a pacific Situation: For moſt of the Deputies of the Provinces of Sweden, who were elected at the laſt Diet, have been now rechoſen, and it is not doubted but that the Baron Nogern de Stahlberg, who was Marſhal then, will be ſo again: Beſides, Colonel Panin, Miniſter from Ruſſia, has delivered Letters to the King and Queen, on the Part of the Empreſs his Miſtreſs, to congratulate their Majeſties upon their Acceſſion to the Throne of Sweden; however, the Maritime and Land Forces of Ruſſia remain upon the ſame Footing, and will do ſo, till the Court of Peterſburg ſees what Turn the Affairs of the approaching Diet of Sweden will take.

LONDON.

August 24. It is believ'd that Measures will be speedily taken for repairing the old English Fort at Anamaboa, or for building a new one in the Neighbourhood, without any Loss of Time, as the Preservation of that Post, for securing the English Trade upon the Gold Coast, is a Matter generally understood, and allow'd to be of great Importance.

We hear that Count Fleming, Envoy extraordinary from the King of Poland, Elector of Saxony, has lately had a Conference with his Majesty's Ministers, when the principal Articles of a Treaty, that has been some Time on the Anvil, between this Court and that of Dresden, were settled; that a Subsidy for six Years is agreed upon; and that this Treaty is of the same Nature with that concluded with the Elector of Bavaria. So that 'tis hoped the Affair of the Election of a King of the Romans will be brought to a happy Conclusion, provided Means can be found to keep the Porte from meddling in any Broils that may happen about that or other Matters.

August 29. According to private Letters from Leghorn, the King of the Two Sicilies has absolutely rejected the Proposition made of entering into a Treaty with the States of Barbary; upon a Supposition, that the Infidels are less dangerous as Enemies than as Friends. It is also asserted, that the League which has been so long the Subject of Conversation, will speedily be made public; and that from thence it will appear, the Maritime States of Italy are far from being incapable of protecting their Commerce by a Naval Force.

They write from the Hague, that the Departure of the French Minister, in Consequence of an Express received from his Court, occasion'd a Variety of Conjectures; the rather, because it is reported, that an Express passed lately through Brussels from Stockholm to Versailles with Dispatches of great Importance; and a Report prevails, that Marshal Lowendahl has receiv'd Directions to make a Tour to the Court of Denmark before he returns to Paris.

The King of Denmark being resolv'd to maintain his Right of Sovereignty in Davis's Streights, and let none trade there besides his own Subjects, two foreign Vessels, the one commanded by Nanning Cornelise, and the other by C. Ganssie, which went thither on a trading Errand, have been seiz'd by his Danish Majesty's Guard Ships. The four Danish Ships which sail'd from Copenhagen some Time ago on a secret Expedition, are arriv'd at Saffia, on the Coast of Africa, where they are to establish a Fort and Factory.

It is pretended that the Dissatisfaction of France with the Genoese, does not arise from the pretended Insults of the Officers of her Troops in Corsica, but from the Republic's refusing to yield up that Kingdom upon the proposed Conditions.

August 30. Private Letters by the last Mail from Holland advise, that the French Ambassador at the Hague was suddenly call'd home from thence, without making any public Entry, as was expected; which occasion'd much Speculation.

August 31. Last Monday it was currently reported about Change-Alley, that the new Nabob of Golconda, set up by M. Dupleix, was killed some Weeks after by some Conspirators; whereby all the towering Prospects of the French Governor General are vanished in Smoke. It is said this Account has been brought by the Norfolk Indiaman, and 'tis hoped we may in a Post or two have a Confirmation of it from France: In the mean Time it has a very good Effect, in raising drooping Stock.

September 7. Last Week a great Quantity of Warlike Stores was shipped from the Tower and Woolwich for Nova Scotia.

Last Thursday the Marquis de Mirepoix, Ambassador from his most Christian Majesty, received an Express from his Court with the News, that the Dauphiness was delivered of a Prince Yesterday 7 night in the Morning, and were both in a very fair Way of doing well.

Orders are issued out of the Lord Chamberlain's Office for the Court's going out of Mourning Tomorrow the 8th Inst. for his late Royal Highness the Prince of Wales.

Last Thursday was the Sale of Shetland Pickled Herrings, at the Royal Exchange Coffee-House, Threadneedle Street; when 95 Whole Barrels, 26 Half, 2 Quarters, and 11 Kegs were sold among a Crowd of Buyers. Each Whole Barrel sold, on an Average, at 21. 15s. 6d. Each Half Barrel at 1l. 15s. 9d. Each Quarter Barrel at 20s. 6d. and each Keg (of 50 Herrings) at 15s.

We hear that an Answer has been drawn up to the Memorial lately presented here on the Part of France (by which that Crown maintains it's Right of Sovereignty on the Island of St. Lucia) and 'tis said that a Demand will speedily be made of the final Determination of the Court of Versailles on that Head.

BOSTON.

October 28. A few Days ago, two young Women (Sisters) belonging to Shrewsbury, on their Way to Lancaster, missing the Road (as is supposed) attempting to pass over a small Water above a Mill-Dam, were both unfortunately drowned.

Yesterday Capt. Partridge arrived here in about 8 Weeks from London, as did a Ship from Holland with 300 German Settlers.

Extract of a Letter from Stockbridge, dated September 25, 1751.

Some of the Mohawks are come this Day to Stockbridge from their own Country, and bring an Account of their Brethren at home, that they continue in a Disposition and Design to bring their Children hither to be instructed. A Number of the far Nations are just now come to treat with the Five Nations, with a very great Belt of Wampum, which is a Sign of great and important Business: And they say the Army that lately went to extirpate the Nation of the Toowechtooweese, are returned without Success; their Design being discovered by that Nation before they came: And that the Army in their Return stopp'd at a Place a little above Oswego, and had sent to the Chiefs of all the Five Nations to come to 'em; and particularly, That the Governor or General of the Army, had sent very earnestly for Hendrick to come, but that he utterly refused, and declared that none of his Tribe should stir. And, if the Account these Men give be true, the other Nations decline this proposed Interview with the French General, and say, If he has any Business with them, he must come to them. These Men also give an Account, that the Small Pox, and Fever and Flux rage exceedingly at this Day among the Five Nations, through the greater Part of their Countries, and prove very mortal; and that great Multitudes are swept off: That the Small-Pox was brought among them from the Country of the Flat Heads, by some that went thither to War: That the Tribe of the Caunechyenkees, or proper Mohawks, had hitherto escaped.....

November 4. On the 25th of last Month, at Noon day, the House of Mr. ——— Hersey, of Hingham, was intirely consum'd by Fire, and all the Furniture, except one Feather-bed, his Stock of Provision and Grain (which was just got in) some Money, and all the Wearing Apparel of himself and Wife, and nine Children, except what they had on their Backs. It was occasion'd by Fire falling out of the Oven among some Husks of Corn that lay upon the Floor, while the People were abroad. 'Tis said Mr. Hersey's Loss is at least 2000 l. old Tenor.

And on the 26th a House at Lexington was burnt down in the Day time, and most of the Furniture, &c. consum'd.

PHILADELPHIA, November 14.

Yesterday Capt. Lauderdale arriv'd here from Savannah La Mar, in Jamaica, and brought the melancholy Account of a violent Hurricane that happen'd in that Island on the eleventh of September last, which lasted 24 Hours, and did a great Deal of Damage to the Shipping, and likewise to the Plantations, by destroying the Plantain Trees, Sugar Canes, &c. There is no particular List of the Ships lost or ashore, only in general, that all the Vessels at Kingston, (the Commodore, and a few others, excepted) were ashore; that one of the Men of War was beat to Pieces; that Capt. Noarth, of this Place, by cutting away his Masts, was one of those that rid it out; that Capt. Whitefield, in a Sloop from Savannah La Mar for this Port, was lost in Black River, and all the People drown'd; and that a Schooner unknown had shar'd the same Fate.

ANNAPOLIS.

On Saturday last died in Prince George's County, after a short Illness of 20 Hours, Col. EDWARD SPRIGG, who was for [illegible] than 22 Years past one of the Representatives for that [illegible] House of Delegates of this Province; was for [illegible] able Speaker of that House; and pre- [illegible] dition of the Peace for the said [illegible] for some Years, and continued in that Station until he [illegible] not only for his firm and zealous zealous Conduct in every Promotion he enjoyed, but for his friendly Diſpoſition and open Candour.

The Election in Frederick County began on Monday laſt Week, and continued 'til Wedneſday Afternoon, when the following Gentlemen were declared duly elected; viz. Daniel Dulany, junior, Eſq; Mr. Nathan Magruder, Capt. Henry Wright Crabb, and Mr. Joſeph Chaplain.

Monday laſt arrived here Capt. Lorain from Briſtol, with about 50 Servants, chiefly Convicts. He left Briſtol the 9th of October, but ſays he knows no later News than the Death of the Prince of Wales.

The General Aſſembly of this Province is to meet here on Friday next.

Yeſterday Major NATHAN HAMMOND was ſworn into the Office of High Sheriff of this County, in the Room of JOHN GASSAWAY, Eſq; whoſe Term of three Years then expired; of whom, with the ſtricteſt Truth and Juſtice, it may be ſaid, that no Gentleman ever diſcharged that difficult and important Truſt with more Honeſty and Circumſpection, or ever went out of it with a better Name and Character, and more general Applauſe, than Mr. GASSAWAY.

We have a certain Account from Talbot County, that ſome Time ago, one Solomon Sharp ſeeing a Porpoiſe in a ſhallow Creek, got ſome of his Neighbours to go with him to aſſiſt in catching it; who ſhot at it, but without killing it: At length the Porpoiſe being pretty much fatigued, did not regard the Canoe they were in, but frequently came very near it; Sharp watching his Opportunity, leap'd upon the Back of the Fiſh, and was carried by it for a conſiderable Time, ſometimes up to his Neck in Water; 'til at length the Porpoiſe running himſelf on Shore, was there kill'd by the Spectators.

Mr. GREEN,

AS the Papiſts have craftily attached to their Intereſt ſome Gentlemen, who are Diſſenters from the Church of England, under the Notion of their being ſubject to the Penalties of ſeveral Acts of Parliament in Force, within this Province, whereas in Fact, the Suggeſtion is in itſelf falſe; and it muſt be through Inadvertency or want of Attention, that any of his Majeſty's Subjects within this Province diſſenting from the Church of England, give Ear or Credit to ſuch Allegations.

If you will pleaſe to give this Room in your next Gazette, to inform theſe worthy Subjects, that in the Body of Laws of this Province, (Page 48) they will find an Act, declaring ſeveral Acts of Parliament made in the Kingdom of England to be in Force, within this Province; and in which Act they ſee that the Act commonly called the Toleration Act, made in the firſt Year of the Reign of King WILLIAM and Queen MARY, Entituled, An Act for exempting their Majeſties Proteſtant Subjects, diſſenting from the Church of England, from the Penalties of certain Laws, is in full Force within this Province, whereby, and other ſubſequent Acts of Parliament, they are ſecured againſt the Effect of the Penal Statutes, with which their artful Adverſaries would endeavour to frighten them.

I am,

Yours and their Friend and Well wiſher,

A. B.
